

Jesus—#32 “The Centurion” (9-8-10)

Texts: Luke 7:1-17

Desire of Ages, p. 315-320

1. What inspired this Roman Centurion to believe that Jesus could heal his servant? (315.2)

---

---

2. What is our only claim to God’s great mercy? (316.4)

---

---

3. What should we tell Satan when we feel hopeless? (317.1)

---

---

4. Is God’s redeeming/saving power really necessary? Why? (317.1)

---

---

5. Why did this centurion far exceed the spiritual condition of most Jews? (317.2)

---

---

6. What did this heathen discern when the light of truth shone on him? (317.2)

---

---

7. Why did this funeral procession awaken sympathy? (318.3)

---

---

8. As the multitude following Jesus and the burial party gathered around this dead youth, what were they hoping? (318.4)

---

---

9. Not even death could defile Jesus. Why? (318.4)

---

---

10. Why is Jesus still touched with our grief? (319.1)

---

---

11. Has the power of Jesus to resurrect the dead been exhausted? (319.1)

---

---

12. Why do we have an even greater hope than this mother of Nain? (320.1)

---

---

13. How only can we break the hold of Satan? (320.2)

---

---

14. What must we do to experience the life that Jesus gives? (320.2)

---

---

15. What is the word of comfort that we are to share? (320.3)

---

---