

Jesus—#34 “The Invitation” (9-22-10)

Texts: Matthew 11:28-30

Desire of Ages, p. 328-332

1. What is the heaviest burden that every human being bears? (328.5)

2. Why does Jesus invite us to cast all our care upon Him? (328.5)

3. How does Jesus know the weaknesses of humanity? (329.1)

4. What will happen as you spread out your anxieties and trials before the Lord? (329.1)

5. What is Jesus really saying with the statement, “Take My yoke upon you”? (329.2)

6. What binds the human worker to the will of God? (329.3)

7. What brought Jesus to this earth to suffer and die? (329.3)

8. What happens when we make the service and honor of God supreme? (330.1)

9. How does the author define the process of “redemption”? (330.2)

10. Why do many professed followers of God have an anxious, troubled heart? (330.3)

11. What brings unrest to the soul and what is the solution? (330.4)

12. What determines the true value of our work? (330.4)

13. How only can we find the burdens of this life “light”? (331.1)

14. How can we find peace and quietude in this life? (331.2)

15. What is “heaven” and when can it begin? (331.3)
