

Jesus—#39 “Give Ye Them to Eat” (10-27-10)

Texts: John 6:1-13

Desire of Ages, p. 364-371

This one of the few stories on all four Gospels

1. Why did this day with Christ seem like heaven on earth to the people? (365.1)

2. Why did Jesus ask the disciples to give the multitude something to eat? (365.3)

3. What was the lesson Jesus taught in providing this humble meal? (366.1)

4. What would be the result today if people were simple in their habits and living in harmony with nature’s laws? (367.1)

5. The Savior has not promised His followers the luxuries of the world, but what has he promised us? (367.2)

6. How is God working every day like He did in feeding the multitude long ago? (367.3)

7. Why does God want us to recognize Him in His gifts to us? (367.3)

8. What was the lesson in gathering up the fragments of food? (368.1)

9. What are some other lessons the miracle of the loaves teach? (368.2)

10. How should we respond when we see how great the needs are, and how small the means in our hands? (369.2)

11. What only can the disciple of Christ impart to others? (370.1)

12. What is a real danger in our work for God? (370.3)

13. What does successful work for Christ depend on? (370.3)

14. When we are surrounded by people in need, what should we do? (370.4)

15. When the means in our possession seem to be insufficient for the work of God, what are we to do? (371.1)

16. Mark 6:34 tells us that Jesus “had compassion” on the people. Where do you think He got this compassion, and how can we get it?
