

Jesus—#54 “The Good Samaritan”

Texts: Luke 10:25-37

Desire of Ages, p. 497-505

1. What does “true religion” consist of? (497.1)

2. Why is it impossible to keep one precept of God’s law and break another? (498.1)

3. What question among the Jews caused endless disputes? Why? (498.3)

4. What will the revelation of God’s love do to the self-centered heart? (498.5)

5. What are the angels in heaven prepared to do? (500.1)

6. Why did God, in His providence, bring the priest and the Levite where the wounded sufferer lay? (500.1)

7. When the Samaritan saw the sufferer, what happened inside him? (503.2)

8. Who is our neighbor—according to Jesus? (503.5)

9. What else does the story of the Good Samaritan reveal to us? (503.6)

10. Beyond “the law” what had the Samaritan obeyed? (504.1)

11. What has almost extinguished the fire of love? (504.2)

12. What is Jesus asking us to do for the saving of humanity? (504.3)

13. What are many who err and feel their shame hungry for? (504.3)

14. How can we press back the power of the enemy? (504.4)

15. What should we impart to every suffering soul we are in contact with? (504.4)

16. What does the spirit we manifest toward our brethren declare? (505.1)

17. What is the only spring of love toward our neighbor? (505.1)
