

Jesus—#69 “On the Mount of Olives”

Texts: Luke 21:5-38

Desire of Ages, p. 627-636

1. What words of Christ struck terror to the hearts of the priests, rulers, and the disciples? (627.1)

2. Why did Jesus blend the descriptions of the destruction of Jerusalem and the great day of His coming? (628.1)

3. Persecution of God’s faithful people will be repeated just before Jesus comes—but who will interpose in their behalf? (630.1)

4. What important message did Christ share about persecution so His followers would not be surprised? (630.2)

5. Why did not one Christian perish in the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70? (630.3)

6. Why did Christ shorten the time and extent of persecution during the Dark Ages? (630.5)

7. What happened at the close of the great papal persecution? (632.1)

8. Why does Christ reveal the signs of the nearness of His coming, but not the exact time? (632.4)

9. How can we hasten the Lord’s return? (633.3)

10. Why does God always give men warning of coming judgments? (634.1)

11. Why are we supposed to “watch” and what does that mean? (634.2)

12. How does the evil servant influence those around him? (635.1)

13. Because Satan knows his time is short, what is he seeking to do and why? (636.2)
