

Jesus—#72 “In Remembrance of Me”

Texts: John 13:18-30

Desire of Ages, p. 652-661

1. How is the great work of God’s deliverance to be kept fresh in our minds? (652.3)

2. How does Jesus’ example help us know how to relate to people we suppose to be in error and sin? (655.4)

3. How can every believer be greatly blessed at the communion service? (656.4)

4. As we receive this new covenant in His body and blood what do we become? (656.5)

5. How does the author differentiate between the “shadow” and the “light” of the cross? And how does this apply to the communion service? (659.1)

6. When we are under conviction of sin, or oppressed, persecuted, or afflicted what are we to remember? (659.2)

7. The communion service also points the believer to Christ’s Second Coming and is designed to do what? (659.3)

8. What powerful truth does this service help us fix our faith upon and ever keep fresh in our memory? (660.1)

9. How does the communion service make sacred the provisions for our daily bread? (660.3)

10. How only can we ever hope to live a life of holiness? (660.4)

11. What will cause praise to God and the Lamb to be in our hearts and on our lips? (661.2)

12. What happens the more we contemplate the cross of Christ? (661.3)
