

Jesus—#80 “In Joseph’s Tomb”

Texts: Luke 23:50-56

Desire of Ages, p. 769-778

In this study, what impressed you most about the Son of God in death?

1. As Jesus rested from the work of redemption His friends on earth were in grief, but why did all heaven rejoice? (769.2)

2. As Jesus died upon the cross who gave witness to His divinity and why? (770.1-2)

3. Who were among the thousands that were converted at Pentecost? (770.3)

4. Why were the priests and rulers not at rest with the death of Jesus? (771.1-2)

5. Why were the priests and rulers so amazed to find Christ dead so soon? (771.4)

6. If neither the cross, nor the spear really killed Jesus, then what did? (772.2)

7. How did the disciples respond to the death of Jesus? (772.3-4)

8. Why did neither Joseph, nor Nicodemus openly accept the Savior while He was living? (773.4)

9. On that never-to-be-forgotten Sabbath why was there a “sense of strangeness” that pervaded everything at the temple? (774.2)

10. What forever established the faith of Nicodemus? (775.2)

11. What made the Jewish leaders believe, yet tremble with fear? (777.1)

12. Why were one hundred Roman soldiers guarding the tomb that confined the Lord of life? (778.1-2)
