

Jesus—#82 “Why Weepest Thou?”

Texts: Mark 16:1-8; John 20:1-18 Desire of Ages, p. 788-794

Is it good news for you that Christ is risen from the grave?

1. What were these women who loved Jesus doing on this fateful Sabbath? (788.1)

2. As a few disciples rushed to the tomb, what evidence did they find of their resurrected Lord? (789.2)

3. Who folded Jesus' grave clothes and why? (789.3)

4. After the resurrection why did Mary not recognize Him at first? (790.1)

5. Why was it important that Jesus meet with His Father? (790.3)

6. Why was this Sunday a day of rejoicing for all heaven, and a day of uncertainty, confusion, and perplexity for Jesus' disciples? (790.4)

7. What had been Peter's experience since the death of Christ and why was he mentioned by name? (793.2)

8. What was the importance for the disciples of the three-fold message to meet Jesus in Galilee? (793.3)

9. What was Christ's first work on earth after His resurrection, and why was this so important? (793.4)

10. What were the disciples focusing on that prevented them from casting off their doubt and perplexities? (794.1-4)

11. Why can Christ's disciples today rejoice even in the face of loss and tragedy? (794.6)

12. According to the author, what must we do in order to see the glory of God today? (794.6)
