

Jesus—#85 “By the Sea Once More”

Texts: John 21:1-22

Desire of Ages, p. 809-817

Have you discovered a new insight about following Jesus in this study?

1. Why did the disciples wait until the Passover week was ended before going to Galilee? (809.1)

2. Why was the Sea of Galilee a special place for Christ’s disciples? (809.3)

3. Why did the disciples gaze upon the risen Savior with “a mysterious awe”? (810.4-5)

4. What was the deeper meaning of casting their nets on the right side of the boat? (810.5)

5. What was the double danger of Peter’s denial of his Lord? (811.1)

6. How does Peter’s response to Christ’s questions reveal a deep change? (812.3)

7. How was the converted Peter different than before? (812.5)

8. What is the lesson for us in the way Jesus dealt with Peter? (815.1)

9. What is the really essential qualification for discipleship and service, without which our work will prove to be a failure? (815.2)

10. How are the words “Follow Me” full of instruction for Peter and for us? (816.1)

11. What is the danger of many followers of Christ today? (816.3)

12. What was the lesson Christ taught Peter by the Sea of Galilee? (817.1-2)
