

Jesus—#87 “To My Father, and Your Father”

Texts: Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:9-12 Desire of Ages, p. 829-835

How precious is the coming of Jesus to you?

1. Why did Jesus tarry for a season before ascending to His Father’s throne? (829.1)

2. Why did the two angels tarry with the disciples? (832.1)

3. Why should disciples rejoice in the hope of their Lord’s return? (832.2)

4. What amazed the people as they looked upon the disciples returning to Jerusalem? (832.3)

5. Why did the disciples now have no distrust of the future? (832.4)

6. How did the prayer life of the disciples change? (832.4)

7. What do the angels never get weary of doing? (832.12)

8. What did the Father and Son covenant to do before the foundations of the earth were laid? (832.16)

9. Why does the Father invite all the angels of heaven to worship the Son? (832.17)

10. How does heaven relate to the Prince of life? (832.18)

11. What does it mean to you that Christ ascended and that He lives? (832.20)

12. What do you think the author means when she says, “The family of heaven and the family of earth are one”? (832.20)
